And ferthermore be it enacted by the seid auctorite, as for any pjurie comytted by any inquestes bytweene the King and partie, (') partie and partie, wherupon juggement is herafter geven, that the ptie greved, or any other that woll complayne of any unlawfull mayntenaunce ymbrasyng corrupcion of any officers wherby the seid pjurie was enduced, and of pjury by the seid inquestes comytted, may compleyne bi bill to be Psented afore the Justice or Justices by whom juggement shall be geven, which Justice or Justices shalbe bounde to receive it, so that the compleynaunt psent the same bill before the same Justice or Justice within vj daies after the juggement yeven, and fynde sufficient suertie before the same Justice or Justices by his or their discrecion to be admytted, that will bynde theym by reconysaunce or otherwise in such some or somes of money as shalbe lymytted by the discrecion of the same Justice or Justices to the sevall parties upon whom he shall complayne, upon condicion that if the partie complaynaunte pve not sufficiently the mater of his compleynt to be true, that then the seid compleynaunte to pay suche costes and damages to the sevall parties greved and at such tyme as shalbe considred and awarded by the discrecion of the seid psones that have power by this psent acte to examyne the same: And that the seid Justice or Justices, after the receyte of the seid bill of compleynt in fourme reherced, chifie the seid bill under his or their seale or seales unto the Chaunceller of Englond for the tyme being, and then the same Chaunceller shall cause by writte at the suyte and costes of the party complaynaunt all suche psone or psones, ayenst whome the seid coplaynte is so made, to come afore the same Chaunceller and Tresorer of England the chief Justices of either Benche and the Clerke of the Rolles for the tyme beyng; which shall have full power and auctorite by this pent acte by their discrecion to examyne all such peone or peones appering before theym, of all thinges comprised in the bill of compleynt, and to punysshe all and evy suche psone or psones as by that examynacion shalbe founde offender or offenders, aswell of pjury as other, after their seid discrecion.

AND ov that be it enacted that if the partie compleynaunt pursue not or pve not his bill of compleyn then he to yeld to evy psone by hym wrongfully vexid his costes and damages and make fyne to the King, after the discrecion of theym before whom thexamynacion is so hadde.

And it is ferther ordeyned that this acte extende not to the anyntisement nether undoyng of the verdite and juggement yeven, but that the seid voite and juggement stonde in his strength to the tyme it be undone or avoided by writte of errour or atteynt or otherwise, after suche ordre as the comen lawe was afore the tyme of making of this statute, this pent acte notwithstonding.

And of that be it ordeyned by the seid auctorite that if pjury bee comytted by pres in the Kinges Courte of the Chauncery or before the Kinges honorable Councell or els where, that then the forenamed Chaunceller upon a bill to hym putte with like suertie as is afore reherced, make like proces to call in the supposed pjured psones afore the seid Chaunceller Tresorer Justices and Clerke of the Rolles, and they to have power to here and examyn the seid psones, and if the seid psones of the pjury or other mysbehavyng before reherced so be convycted, that then they to be punysshed undre like fourme as is afore reherced. Provided alwey that this acte begynne to take his effecte at the fest of the Nativyte of oure Lord next comyng; and noe lenger to endure but unto the next parliament.

Actus conviccois ctaz psonaz.

Conviction and Attainder for Treason of Wm. Stanley, Simon Mountfort, Will. Dawbeney, and Rob. Ratclif, whereby Estates held for their Use did not become forfeit,

Treasons of Sir Gilb. Debenham and Sir H. Savage in assisting Piers Warbeck, whereupon they were indicted, and having fled were outlawed and attainted by Process of Law;

Estates held for their Use, not forfeited. Treasons of Sir J. Ratcliff of Fitzwater, Wm Barley, and Thos. Brampton, whereof they stand indicted.

Landing of the said Piers Warbeck at Deal, where he treasonably levied War against the King; where were present Sir George Nevill, John Heyron, and divers other Persons here named.

The Prior of Kilmaynan, [See Chapter XLIV. § 6. and Chapter XLV. of this Session.] All the Persons before named declared to be convict, adjudged, and attainted of High Treason; and shall forfeit all Lands whereof they were seised, or others to their Use, in Fee Simple, Fee Tail, or for Life; at the Time of their Treasons committed, &c.

WHERE William Stanley late of the Towne of Westin in the Countie of Midd Knight, otherwise called William Stanley late of the parisshe of Seynt Martyn in the feld besides Charyng Crosse in the same County Knight, Symond Mountfort late of Colshull in the Countie of Warwyke Knight, William Dawbeney late of London Gentilman, Robt Ratclif late of London Squier, for Eteyn treasons ymagened and compased traiterously, to the destruccion of the moost roiall psone of the King oure Soveign Lord and subvision of this his realme, before his Justices and Comissioners in sevall Oyers and Dermyners by him in that ptie assigned, aswell in the Citie of London as in the Shire of Midd, by due ordre and poesse of the lawe were for dyvs sondry treasons by theym sevally comytted and don convict and atteynted of High treason, as in the sevall recordis therof more pleynly apperith; by the which atteyndours the seid psones atteynted, forfaited not ne myght forfeit, any Mah's landis tentis possessions ne hereditamente wheref other psones were seased to their sevall uses; And where also Gilbert Debenham late of the Toune of Westin in the Countie of Midd Knight, and Humfrey Savage late of the Towne of Westm in the seid Countie Knight, as fals traytrous and Rebelles of the King our Soveign Lord, the xth of Fevere the viijth yere of his moost noble reign att Westm aforseid, falsly and traiterously ymagened confedered and compassed the deth and distruccion of our seid Soveign Lord and Subvision of this his Realme, and to accomplisshe and pfourme the same fals purpose, the same Gilbert and Humfrey knowing oon Piers Warbek enemye of our seid Soveign Lord (1) and other his rebelles beyng beyonde the see, adherentis to the same Piers, to levie Werre ageynst our seid Soveign Lord, receyved at Westm aforeseid message by Eteyn psones from the seid Pers and other his seid adherentis, and to the same entent sent Message agayn oute of this realme to the seid Pers and to his seid adherentis, that the seid Gilbert within shorte tyme aftir wold come to the same Pers and to his seid adhererentis beyonde the See, and take his ptie ageynst our seid Soveign Lord in leveyng were ageynst him, and come into Englond with the seid Pers and his seid adherentis, falsely and traiterously to his power to helpe to depose and put downe oure seid Soveign Lord;
